I have come across several Wisconsin repreegates meet, it is impossible to say. I hope promise is still king, notwithstanding the experience of the North in regard to compromises.

Something, I hope, will grow out of the presin the Convention that it will take ground bands. against Slavery in all the Territories, and against the admission of any more Slave States. A company of cadets—the Philadelphia Greys-150 strong, are here at the Cataract House, an excellent, first class Hotel.

In an hour I leave for New York.

FROM THE KANSAS TRAIN.-Mr. E. G. Ross writes, under date of May 30th, that three wagens had joined the train after it left Janesville, and six more were engaged to join the party. He says that the news from the sack of Lawrence had only the more nerved the party to push forward to secure their prospective homes from the curse of Slavery. He des sires that the thanks of the emigrants be given for material aid to Messrs. Dougherty and Gilbert of Muskego, Moffat of Mukwonago, Clark of Johnstown, the Janesville Kansas League, S. S. Daggett of Milwaukee, M. T. Walter of Milton, Mr. Devereux and the hands of the Beloit Journal office, and Mesers. Peet & Bundy of Beloit. Everything was harmonious among the company.

Excitement in regard to American affairs was increased.

The London Times, for reference to the resignation of Padre Vigil says it seems the demand on one side and concessions on the other had reached their utmost limit, and suggests that the United States should send to London a special Ambassador, or accredit the present Minis er with plenipotentiary powers to settle the dispute amicably.

P. S.—We did not "step the pro-s," to inform the community that we are connected with large manufacturing Establishments at the East. We can also say we have no connection with any small establishment in the West. There is a rumor to-day that Lord Elgin will be sent Plenipotentiary to Washington. Another rumor says Sir Henry will be the Envoy. On the 20th the Bank of England reduced the m nimum discount to five per cent.
